Terms and Conditions

Please note that the below terms and conditions apply if you when registering your gown/dress for sale through Wore It Once.

- All gowns/dresses being displayed for sale MUST be cleaned with no visible marks before the event.
- All gowns/dress being displayed are to be in excellent condition without rips, tears, holes, missing buttons, etc. All dresses will be examined before they are put on display.
- Hidden Gems has the right to not except or cancel a registration if they believe the gown/dresses are not of good quality or if the seller becomes rude or aggressive.
- All buyers will be registered, no walk ins.
- Hidden Gems will provide dressers to man each change room to ensure that care is taken with your gown/dress whilst being tried on by a potential buyer.
- Each seller will be given an identity code and this code will be displayed on your items.
- Photos of each item are to be provided with your completed registration form.
- All sale funds taken on the day will be held by Hidden Gems/The Greens on William for 7 days and then they will be transferred to your nominated bank account.
- Whilst the upmost care will be taken with your gown/dresses, Hidden Gems & The Greens on William take no responsibility for any damaged caused to your gown/dresses or veils. Items are displayed at sellers risk.
- All gowns that are not sold are to be collected within 7 days from the event. Failure to collect will result in the dress being donated to charity.
- No refunds will be provided if your gown/dress/s don't sell on the day.

I have read and agree with the above terms and conditions
